WAIVER & RELEASE

In consideration of the acceptance of any application for the Horseshoe Tournament at the Kemmerer Fossilfest on July 10, 2010, any participant or legal guardian of a participant, waives, releases and discharges any and all claims for damages for death, personal injury or property damage which they may have, or which may hereafter occur to them, as a result of participation in said event. This release is intended to discharge in advance the Fossilfest committee, it's offices, employees or agents, as well as, tournament sponsor from liability, even though that liability may arise out of negligence or carelessness on the part of the persons or entities mentioned above. It is understood that some recreational activities involve an element of risk or danger of accidents and knowing those risks, participants assume those risks. It is further understood and agreed that this waiver, release and assumption of rest is to be binding on any heirs and assignees. Parental consent is required if participants is under the age of 18. Consent to treat is an option given to all participants in the event it is necessary. It is understood that Fossilfest provides no medical insurance for such treatment, and that the cost thereof will be at the participant's expense. If a person's physician is requested, every effort will be made to contact such physician. However, the location of the activity or the nature of the illness or injury may require the use of emergency medical personnel
